1 Ourobolus★ 09-03-2015 07:28 PM ET (US)	Moderator here: Ground rules for this chat: 1) This chat is strictly between players on the mission. Please do not share this link, nor copy/paste posts from here anywhere else. 2) Generally speaking: If you wouldn't do it in the public thread, don't do it here. Role claims and game speculation are allowed, but will not be confirmed by me here. If you have a question, it's probably better to PM me directly. 3) This forum will only stay open for this current night phase. Afterwards, no more posts will be allowed, but you may come back to look at the history. 4) This chat will close 30 minutes before the next day phase so I can get everything ready.
2 Kristoffer 09-03-2015 07:35 PM ET (US)	Squidyj, are you really the lightning rod?
3 palmer_v1★ 09-03-2015 07:37 PM ET (US)	Not sure what Kris was trying to accomplish there. My only guess is he's HP and thinks he has a chance at ER finally. That makes me think HP is not Mafia, cause we obviously just kill him tomorrow now. YesNo will probably role block him for lack of better targets.
4 palmer_v1★ 09-03-2015 07:37 PM ET (US)	Wait, I forgot Kris is on here. Now I'm really confused.
5 Kristoffer 09-03-2015 07:39 PM ET (US)	I want an answer from squidyj before I say anything. I need to know if kgb have a forced murder on missions when he activates.
6 Squidyj 09-03-2015 07:43 PM ET (US)	QB is in here right? I'm really a lightning rod!
7	Okay, then it's confession time.

Kristoffer 09-03-2015 07:43 PM ET (US)
8 palmer_v1★ 09-03-2015 07:44 PM ET (US)	Squidyj, I can't remember, but do you trigger town roles too?
9 Squidyj 09-03-2015 07:45 PM ET (US)	my action affects everybody equally when I use it.
10 palmer_v1★ 09-03-2015 07:46 PM ET (US)	Roger.
11 palmer_v1★ 09-03-2015 07:47 PM ET (US)	I meant to ask, but was afraid of the answer being known widely, if there is a Mafia here and a Mafia out there, does forcing this one prevent the other from submitting a kill? Though I guess Mafia here means they would all know the answer anyway.
12 palmer_v1★ 09-03-2015 07:48 PM ET (US)	Oh, and you're either dead or we're all town, so how many shots do you have?
13 Squidyj 09-03-2015 07:48 PM ET (US)	Here's the interesting thing though. if Mike is silent that suggest they would have used him exclusively until he died, suggesting Yeeny's n1 block was not effective and thus mafia had a kill floating around. It makes me feel a lot better about Zeke.
14 palmer_v1★ 09-03-2015 07:48 PM ET (US)	wait one more, if the last mafia has a power as well, are you certain he has to kill you or would it trigger both?
15 Squidyj 09-03-2015 07:50 PM ET (US)	I've only used my power once. I want to hear Kris' confession. Confession Time, everybody get your blankies and your baa baas
16 palmer_v1★ 09-03-2015 07:51 PM ET (US)	I agree about that, but I was still 90% certain he was good. He just got incredibly irrational today. What do we think about Mazre? I find it very hard to believe there would have been more than one alignment controlling mafia. My worst fear is a switcher.
17 Squidyj	I'm a little bummed about yeeny's claim. During the night I had planned to go in on Mike on general scumminess and the hot out the gate picks but then Yeeny stole my

09-03-2015 07:55 PM ET (US)	thunder with like.... evidence and stuff. My poor ego :P
18 palmer_v1★ 09-03-2015 08:01 PM ET (US)	Him and Septimus were on a shortlist I wanted to look at today, but didn't get around to doing it during the Night phase. I've been lazy at Night because I keep expecting to be dead anyway. YN trumped the hell out of us. Clever girl! Edited 09-03-2015 08:02 PM
19 palmer_v1★ 09-03-2015 08:02 PM ET (US)	Since I'm bored, what the fuck random bullshit is Kris about to attempt?
20 Squidyj 09-03-2015 08:03 PM ET (US)	Kris... still waiting on that confession bro.
21 palmer_v1★ 09-03-2015 08:03 PM ET (US)	I think he'll claim Town Vig to scare you out of your move.
22 Kristoffer 09-03-2015 08:05 PM ET (US)	I was pissed that Enker wasted his override. On a player we had majority vote on? Really? So I got jealous and decided I would fake role claim to force people into a lynch. As soon as QuantumBro posted his role in last night's mission chat, I decided I would incriminate him somehow, someway. What didn't help is that QB's role claim included a mention of the honeypot. I still see nothing but red. He obviously concocted a fake, harmless weak cop claim to slip under the radar and verify town players. But Roman, a hunter that just lets ISIS go? Come on. There is no honeypot. Archer has been the only honeypot the entire show. Not only that, but the only other possible honeypot character in the entire show is Katya, and I think she would be lovers with Barry, who is now dead. There is no honeypot. Ezekel's 3 bps instead of infinite bp didn't help my demeanor either. Palmer, that's why I told you I was worried about players who make "slight changes" to their role claim. Wtf is the point of 3bp? Does not qualitatively change the game. I was letting Ezekel know, inconspicuously, that I did not appreciate his modified claim at all. But I still thought he was town, just maybe a hidden pr. And if there is another archer, now would be the time to claim, so it is obvious he is archer. Kgb microchip is silly. ...although possible. If it's true, high five to Ouro for awesome writing. Back to QB. So the day happened and I was set to say QB never investigated, get him lynched, and that would be my version of the override I was so covetous of. Cool. But then yesno came out with her evidence and Mike became the obvious choice. Rats. I still couldn't let it go, though. I needed yes no to roleblock QB tonight so that's when I claimed. We didn't know squidyj could do his thing on missions though so if I had known, I wouldn't have revealed. Anyway, if QB was roleblocked that night and still no nightkill, it would have been a nice little sloop and squat. Four mafia lynchings in a row would have gotten our game in the GAFia hall of fame. So that's why I roleclaimed. My role claim was structured in a way that would have signaled to someone that I had a plan. First, I chose a player that most certainly had a real occupant. That move is way too risky for KGB. Second, I was cleared by the weak cop, so why would I want to be back in the spotlight? At worst if I was KGB then QB was weird neutral but that doesn't matter to KGB so I would be spared 3, maybe 4 nights. That's basically enough to throw the game. It was as good as godfather, But I forsook it, so that's another indicator I'm town. So the person reading my role claim should have gone "Well, I'm actually Pam. But he must have a good reason for this, so I'm going to let it slide for a day." Hobo did not do this. Which irritated me, so I had to deal with that. But that's why we were both telling each other we don't think the other's kgb. He realized I had a gambit, just not a good one. But he didn't like QB's claim either so I forgive him. Then squiddy revealed mission force kill. Wow. That's a game changer. Now I didn't need to force people to lynch QB, I just needed to get him back on the mission. That's awesome. So my role claim wasn't for naught after all because it necessitated squiddy ability for proof. So where are we now? QB, Palmer, and I came here voluntarily. None of us are probably scum. Best case scenario is all four of us live and we've verified three people (!!!). Me, Palmer, and QB. Worst case scenario is squid dies and we have a 50/50 of getting last kgb (Palmer or QB) since I'm clearly town (my proof? In my role pm it says ISIS! I must be town! Dun dun dun, deduction.)

23 Kristoffer 09-03-2015 08:08 PM ET (US)	Ps I really am ordinary drone, as I first claimed.
24 Squidyj 09-03-2015 08:10 PM ET (US)	I don't really have him pegged as scum as much as a desperate neutral trying to work some sort of win condition magic. It's QB I think is scum. Hobohodo is legit pam with a legit snoop and legitimately saw QB and yeeny visit me which shows that out of the visible people who were in town that day, only those two had regularly used night actions. The mission team when I used my power was Mazre and Zeke but neither one can be the roleblocker which suggests that the roleblocker was in my sphere of influence when I used my power. It also seems unlikely that a KGB roleblocker would have limited activations.
25 palmer_v1★ 09-03-2015 08:14 PM ET (US)	If you die Squidyj, what order do you want us three to die? QB first, I assume, but who would you put next between Kris and I?
26 Squidyj 09-03-2015 08:14 PM ET (US)	Okay Zeke is Archer without a counterclaim and he was attacked N1, what's the purpose in fabricating a honeypot character? how does that help town?

27 Kristoffer 09-03-2015 08:16 PM ET (US)	Ezekel theories! My favorite. Maybe Archer is actually not ISIS and a narcissistic neutral character who only cares about surviving, at anyone else's cost.
28 Kristoffer 09-03-2015 08:17 PM ET (US)	Does anyone have any comments on what I did? :v
29 palmer_v1★ 09-03-2015 08:17 PM ET (US)	The lack of an Archer CC and Darryl clearing him are the only reasons I trust ER, but they're GOOD reasons. If he was Mafia, I see absolutely no point to anything he did except get on the mission to report activity. In that case, the whole Gorlak thing makes no goddamn sense. He would have waited for a new non-mafia to join, and then kill Darryl.
30 palmer_v1★ 09-03-2015 08:19 PM ET (US)	i.e. ER is either slightly bad Town, or VERY BAG Mafia. I don't have any strong opinions about your claims yet, Kris. There's not a lot of point analyzing it until I know if Squidyj dies or not.
31 Kristoffer 09-03-2015 08:23 PM ET (US)	Assume squiddy dies.
32 Squidyj 09-03-2015 08:26 PM ET (US)	Wait who was the n5 mission team?
33 Squidyj 09-03-2015 08:28 PM ET (US)	Kris, how awkward is it to get so close to killing zeke and have it slip out of reach?
34 Squidyj 09-03-2015 08:35 PM ET (US)	nevermind i'm dumb, what am I doing?
35 Kristoffer 09-03-2015 08:47 PM ET (US)	You mean when Palmer and I decided to vote for Ezekel? It was really satisfying and I wanted it to happen. So close, but no cigar.
36 Kristoffer 09-03-2015 08:52 PM ET (US)	I'm sorry if I confused you guys, I thought it would be really obvious I had a strong hunch on QB that was honeybutt related and decided to squidyj it.

37 Squidyj 09-03-2015 10:25 PM ET (US)	So..... Thinking things through If you're mafia scum in this game you have to behave as though I don't have the power I said I had and hope that I was lying (at this point). If the only scum is on the mission and there is 1 then the best scenario is to target noone even though it sets you back a kill, otherwise you force at most 2 mislynches and it is likely town will attempt to restrict your ability to generate kills on future nights as they work to resolve the puzzle. If there is scum outside the mission then they should kill as normal outside the mission. They could attempt to trigger a mislynch on Yeeny's block target but it's not a strategy that will win them the game, they very much need to claw ahead on kills. It seems almost impossible for there to be more than 5 mafia in this game so I think we would have at most 2 remaining unless there is some sort of conversion role. which would be horrifying.
38 Kristoffer 09-03-2015 10:53 PM ET (US)	Yeah but you got tha juice so it don't even matter. If there's a scumbag lying (pun!) around here, we've got him.
39 palmer_v1★ 09-03-2015 11:14 PM ET (US)	4 with decent powers would not be unusual considering we have 2 neutrals, and maybe up to 4 neutrals. So really the game was 19 players. 15v4 seems right. 14v5 seems to favor mafia a lot. 16v3 favors town, and we already know it's more than 3.
40 Squidyj 09-04-2015 12:03 AM ET (US)	So.... having looked at some plausible mafia strategy I don't think we lose much if I reveal that while I am a Lightning Rod I was only one-shot and cannot force actions on mission. I was debating holding it until tomorrow to see if mafia(read QB) would try to kill in our little group but seeing how suicidal that would be for them I think that it is unlikely. My goal was simply to put pressure on Zeke and Mazre who had been less than towny, less than talkative, and less than cooperative about their mission involvement. As a result I feel much better about them in the end, in spite of the shakiness of Zeke in the middle. I resolved myself not to lie in mission chat and you can see that reflected in how I answered the previous questions in here.
41 Kristoffer 09-04-2015 12:52 AM ET (US)
42 Kristoffer 09-04-2015 12:52 AM ET (US)	For having such a sure target today, how did we all end up lying to each other so much?
43 Kristoffer 09-04-2015 12:56 AM ET (US)	Honestly, I feel betrayed and dismayed I have no idea what to do anymore My whole world is shattered

44 Squidyj 09-04-2015 02:02 AM ET (US)	Still no QB sighting in here. that's not suspicious at all :P
45 QuantumBro ★ 09-04-2015 10:50 AM ET (US)	/m44 Blame Hideo Kojima for that. I'll skim through and then talk.
46 QuantumBro ★ 09-04-2015 11:33 AM ET (US)	Not many thoughts besides it was pretty obvious that Kris was bluffing about his role claim. Don't really get why he thinks that Ezekel and I are collaborating I assume you're going to use your power Squiddy, can't wait for you to not kill me again. Palmer, did you ever role claim besides the ordinary drone one?
47 palmer_v1★ 09-04-2015 11:44 AM ET (US)	Ordinary Drone indeed.
48 Kristoffer 09-04-2015 12:36 PM ET (US)	I didn't think you and him were collaborating. I thought you were taking advantage of a fake role claim.
49 QuantumBro ★ 09-04-2015 02:07 PM ET (US)	So, you think Ezekel is either KGB or neutral? Otherwise wouldn't he have just called me out when I claimed?
50 Kristoffer 09-04-2015 02:28 PM ET (US)	Thought, I don't know anything anymore. If he is KGB, then he would just see you as a weird neutral with a win condition that is not related to his own and let you do your own thing. Allies are more important than ever considering 3 KGB are dead (this reminds me of when Raindoc realized Palmer was his bodyguard and forged a game winning alliance). He could be neutral survivor because he's a dick and you've caught on to it and made a gamble. But both of those are unlikely and I'm coming around to the honeybutt being valid theory.
51 palmer_v1★ 09-04-2015 03:09 PM ET (US)	ER: Nobody has ever counterclaimed Archer. At this point in the game, that seems very unlikely. FFS, how many people are actually left that haven't made a claim at all? So I take it as fact that he is Sterling Archer. He was investigated by our Cop. Darryl had no reason to lie about what result he got. The only way ER could be Mafia or Neutral is if he has a Godfather type role, he was converted afterwards, or there was a Mafia switcher on the mission. Why Mafia? Because anybody else would have come out and explained their actions by now.

So is ER a Godfather? Fluff-wise, it's possible with the microchip thing. Meta-game wise, I find it unlikely due to Nikolai's role. Between Squidyj, YesNo, and Haly, there are already 3 ways that his power could go wrong. I just find it really hard to believe there would be another role like that in the game.

Was there a Switcher? He got cleared N2, when it was me, ER, Mazre, and Darryl. It's obviously not Darryl, and I really don't think it would be Archer. Partly because it doesn't fit the fluff, and partly because most switchers cannot self target. That leaves me or Mazre.

Case for me being Mafia Switcher: There is zero hard evidence to prove it, and I feel like I've been pretty pro-town at every opportunity, though I did make some mistakes in regards to Darryl since I simply didn't trust him entirely. He cleared the scummiest motherfuckers.(Mazre, ER, and TheGodamn)

Case for me NOT being the switcher: Again, no hard evidence. It would require the Mafia to have put TWO members on a team with a known cop N2, and since most switchers can't self target, there was a 50/50 shot I get investigated and outed. It also makes the Gorlak kill make no sense. Also, why wouldn't I have submitted the Night kills instead of Mike after he got blocked the first time? Or just switched him while he put in the kill?

I'm not going to rehash it for Mazre, because the same reasoning applies in every case. Only real difference is I don't think he's played particularly helpful to town. Then again, I'm not sure if he has a role or anything, so there might be more going on behind the scenes.

Basically I think Mazre or I being switchers just doesn't make any sense. Godfather ER seems more likely.

Finally, could he have been converted? It's possible. Who had opportunities to target him after N2? Are any of them particularly sketchy? This seems like a stretch, but it's not impossible.

He's most likely just a very selfish, Town-Aligned, Sterling Archer.

On Mission Night 5, I posted a list of all players who had not been verified by some circumstance like cop, wording, or death. Here it is again, updated for yesterday.

Suspects:
Kristoffer
Septimus Prime Quantumbro
Palmer_v1

I took off YesNo and Mike, and I also took off Hobo because there was only one other counterclaim for Pam. (Three would have been fun. Alas, it didn't happen.) I took off squidyj because of everything I said Day 6 - he took out Haly. Pure and simple. If QB is telling the truth, then both Palmer and I are town/neutral, so probably not a threat to town. And if QB is telling the truth that also means that HE is neutral, and townish. So really, the only other person that hasn't been verified for this whole game is Septimus Prime. I think he's the final KGB agent. And even if he isn't, he's the most logical choice for tomorrow. If QB isn't telling the truth, then both Palmer and I are suspect, still, but I think QB is more suspect because that kind of lie is more suspicious than "hasn't been cleared by the weak cop". I can't comment on the likelihood of either scenario. I am too biased by my disbelief of the Honeypot stuff. I think that lynching QB is the safest way to get more information, but I also like playing with assumptions and would rather lynch Septimus Prime. If Septimus Prime doesn't flip red, then we should lynch QB to see if the assumptions I have made are good. And if Septimus flips ISIS and QB flips truthfully Roman, then we obviously have a godfather. I think that is our surest, most logical way to move forward. QB, since you checked myself and palmer already, I would check squidyj just to satisfy Ezekel.

54 Kristoffer 09-04-2015 03:47 PM ET (US)	And we shouldn't lynch me because I am totally town.
55 Kristoffer 09-04-2015 03:49 PM ET (US)	QB, does your role kill you based on perceived alignment, or true alignment? If the former, then both Palmer and I could be godfather. If the latter, then everything I've written concerning logical deduction stands.
56 palmer_v1★ 09-04-2015 03:52 PM ET (US)	He never checked me due to SJ's role use, assuming that was true.
57 Kristoffer 09-04-2015 04:40 PM ET (US)	Whatever, you're town. Someone's going to die tonight off mission and all of us will be exonerated.
58 palmer_v1★ 09-04-2015 04:41 PM ET (US)	I hope ER dies just to save a lot of arguing.
59 Kristoffer 09-04-2015	Me, too! He's such a pansy.

04:43 PM ET (US)
60 palmer_v1★ 09-04-2015 04:45 PM ET (US)	If Septimus does turn out to be KGB, it will feel like a Keyser Soze moment, except mentally instead of physically.
61 Kristoffer 09-04-2015 04:50 PM ET (US)	To be fair, Keyser Soze's facade was notable not primarily because of his limp, but because he was submissive, easily intimidated, and not especially intelligent.
62 Kristoffer 09-04-2015 04:52 PM ET (US)	So palmer, QB, squidyj. If there's a night kill tonight outside of the mission, do we all agree to lynch Septimus?
63 palmer_v1★ 09-04-2015 05:04 PM ET (US)	Not yet. It depends on who died and whatever else might get revealed.
64 Squidyj 09-04-2015 06:13 PM ET (US)	I have never lied in mission chat Palmer. Mission chat is sacred. Also, I agree to nothing. we will see in the day phase who we want to kill. I think it's worth considering lynching noone if there's no night kill too. send the same mission again. Edited 09-04-2015 06:14 PM
65 Squidyj 09-04-2015 06:15 PM ET (US)	Actually it might be best to just lynch a mission member and move one from town to mission and see what happens if there's no kill tonight.
66 Kristoffer 09-04-2015 06:27 PM ET (US)	yeah okay whatever
67 Ourobolus★ 09-04-2015 06:27 PM ET (US)	Hey, the no edit rule is in place here too!
68 Kristoffer 09-04-2015 06:28 PM ET (US)	modkill! modkill!
69	:(I fucked up :(

Squidyj 09-04-2015 06:33 PM ET (US)
70 Squidyj 09-04-2015 06:54 PM ET (US)	Like this would be my plan for tomorrow. If there is no kill at all -Lynch QB -Send Palmer, Myself, Kris, ???? on the mission If there is a kill outside the mission -Review information and come up with a lynch -Send entirely new group on mission
71 Kristoffer 09-04-2015 08:15 PM ET (US)	Yeah, I like that plan. I guess the only way out for QB is for someone to die off mission.
72 Kristoffer 09-06-2015 05:04 AM ET (US)	Nobody else has anything to say? Are we in the home stretch?
73 palmer_v1★ 09-06-2015 10:55 AM ET (US)	Been busy this weekend. I'm alright with that plan.
74 Squidyj 09-06-2015 02:53 PM ET (US)	And if for some reason there is a kill inside the mission i think my ordering for who to lynch first is QB Palmer Kris Myself but I would send a reduced size mission of only people remaining from that group if we mislynch.
75 Squidyj 09-06-2015 02:54 PM ET (US)	woops, meant kris then palmer, my bad
